BAINES-HERRING

Miss Bernice Baines of Shreveport, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Baines of Oil City, Louisiana, and Hartwell Cushman Herring, of Springhill, Louisiana, son of Mrs. H. C. Herring and the late H. C. Herring of Moss Point, were married in Minden, Louisiana, on Tuesday, September 5th, at four o'clock in the home of Dr. W. F. O'Kelly, pastor of the Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Herring is a graduate of Louisiana State Normal College and has been a member of the faculty of the Fair Park High School in Shreveport. Mr. Herring graduated from Moss Point High School and attended Marion Institute in Marion, Alabama, and the United States Coast Guard Academy in New London, Connecticut. He is at present employed by the Southern Kraft Corporation in Springhill as engineer.

Mr. and Mrs. Herring took a short honeymoon trip, stopping in Moss Point and Pascagoula, where they visited relatives and friends. They will make their home in Springhill, and have the best wishes of a host of friends in Jackson county.

Herring Recalls Scranton

W. B. Herring, chairman of the board of directors of the Pascagoula - Moss Point Bank and a former publisher of Moss Point and Pascagoula, tells the following bits of Jackson County history:

Scranton, when was absorbed by Pascagoula in 1903, was named by a railroad engineer by the same name. Scranton was from Pennsylvania and an ancestor of William Scranton, governor of Pennsylvania.

A former editor of a Pascagoula newspaper obtained most of his news items by meeting trains at the Scranton depot. Persons leaving or coming back to town were top news of the day.

All Jackson County railroad stations at one time had different names.

The Orange Grove station

was known as Murray; Kreole Fountaine. The Ocean Springs station got its name during the Civil War, but the former name is unknown.

The first Our Lady of Victories chapel was built in 1871. This building was badly damaged by the storm of 1893 and was moved in 1895 to its present location.

Yellow Tapers, Flowers Accent Wedding Ceremony

The wedding of Vicki Lynn Elsberry to Robert Hartwell Herring Jr. was solemnized Saturday, August 31, at 6 p.m. in Oak Park Free Will Baptist Church in Pine Bluff.

Officiating for the double ring ceremony were Reverend Larry Norrell of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, and Reverend Richard Bowers of Pine Bluff.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Elsberry of Altheimer. She is a graduate of Altheimer High School and attended Arkansas State University at Jonesboro. She was formerly employed as a secretary in the office of the mayor of Pine Bluff.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. R.H. Herring of Mobile, Alabama. He is a graduate of Pine Bluff High School and attended Arkansas State University and the University of Arkansas at Monticello. He is presently a technical student in the engineering department of International Paper Company in Mobile and will continue his engineering studies at the University of Southern Alabama in Mobile, where he is a junior.

The sanctuary of the church was centered with a white kneeling bench and a 15-branch arch fan candelabra holding yellow tapers and entwined with greenery and yellow mums and was flanked on either side with spiral candelabras, also holding yellow tapers. Two arrangements of yellow glads complemented the scene. Jade and yellow bows marked the family pews.

Nuptial music was provided by William H. Roberts Jr., organist, and Mrs. Henry Sadler, soloist.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of sheer, nylon organza over taffeta fashioned with a lace V-shaped bib and lace neck and long, full sleeves with deep cuffs. A sash and back waist bow of satin further accented the gown, and the A-line skirt formed a chapel-length train. Her only jewelry was a silver locket in the shape of a heart, a gift from the bridegroom.

Her fingertip veil of imported silk illusion was attached to a picture hat of French chantilly lace.

The bride's flowers were yellow sweetheart roses and yellow daisies with baby's breath and stephanotis.

GLASS CUTTING BOARD

Whatever is used in food preparation should be easy to wash in hot suds and rinses or in a dishwasher. A non-porous safety glass cutting board meets this standard. Featuring a bright harvest design, boards are available in two sizes: 8"x10" and 10"x14". Corners are rounded, edges seamed. The smooth surface won't mar, nick, scratch or discolor.

for the chapter's Girl of the Year and a family fun day in April and a Mother's Day tea

Mrs. Larry J. Elsberry, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of yellow polyester crepe fashioned with a round neckline and short, tucked sleeves. She wore a yellow picture hat and carried a nosegay of yellow daisies.

Bridesmaids were Donna Beth Davis of Jonesboro, Teresa Herring, sister of the bridegroom of Mobile, Alabama, and Mrs. Stuart Beggs, cousin of the bride of Mabelvale. They wore mint green gowns, identical in style to that of the honor attendant, and matching mint green picture hats.

The bridegroom's father served as best man.

Ushers were Lewis Herring, brother of the bridegroom of Mobile, Randy Skidmore and Mike Watson, both cousins of the bride of Little Rock.

Groomsmen were Larry Elsberry, brother of the bride of Pine Bluff; Jimmy Hefley, cousin of the bridegroom of Conway; and Bill Herring, brother of the bridegroom of Mobile.

Jennifer Jo Elsberry, the bride's niece, was flower girl.

Ring bearer was Clint Fulmer of Conway, cousin of the bridegroom.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church. The bride's table was covered with a white, lace-edged cloth and was centered with a silver candelabra holding yellow tapers and an arrangement of yellow daisies. Appointments were in silver and crystal.

Members of the houseparty were Mrs. O.H. Cooper, aunt of the bride, Mrs. John Kelley, Mrs. Richard Bowers and Mrs. Richard Coe, all of Pine Bluff; Mrs. J.O. Hefley, aunt of the bridegroom of Conway; and Mrs. W.M. Vangilder and Mrs. Charles Bailey, both of Altheimer.

Cynthia Ann Pack of Pine Bluff was in charge of the bride's book.

After a wedding trip through the southern states, the couple will be at home on the campus of the University of Southern Alabama at Mobile.

Bragg's blades: Fit for finery, derring-do

(EDITOR'S NOTE — This article is another in a series, "Public Treasures," which appears in the Living Today Section of The Mobile Register. It offers a look at some of the valuable and interesting artifacts in the museums and public collections of the Mobile area.)

By CAMMIE EAST

Living Today Associate Editor

The sword is certainly something to brag about! Described as "a fine example of the most elaborate presentation American officer's swords of the Mexican War era," it belonged to Gen. Braxton Bragg, C.S.A. It was presented to the Museum of the City of Mobile by Norborne R. Clarke, M.D., in memory of Margaret Reinhard Clarke. The general's niece had presented the sword to Clarke.

Press Register photos by Jay Ferchaud

The sword presented to Gen. Braxton Bragg by the people of Mobile, above, was used by him throughout the Civil War. The dagger, below, a less obvious weapon which also belonged to Bragg, was made for concealment in a gentleman's vest, between the shoulder blades.

Public Treasures

Bragg was born in Warren County, N.C., March 22, 1817. He stood fifth in his graduating class of 55 at West Point, in 1837, and soon became a lieutenant in the regular Army. He served in Florida, in the Indian Wars, from 1838-1845, and became a captain during the Mexican War, at Fort Brown.

Other promotions followed, as he made his distinguished way up the U.S. Army chain — he was named a major at Monterey, and a lieutenant colonel at Buena Vista. His success was glorious, and Mobilians rejoiced in his gallantry: Inscribed on a gold plate, on the reverse of the sword, is the notation, "Presented by the citizens of Mobile as a testimonial of their admiration of the gallant conduct of Maj. Braxton Bragg in the attack of Monterey and more particularly in contributing greatly as he did to the glorious victory at Buena Vista."

The sword was made by N.P. Ames of Springfield, Mass.

Bragg's climb in the service of the United States came to a sudden halt with the events of 1861. His loyalties lay with the South, so he resigned, volunteering his services to his friend Jefferson Davis.

The offer was accepted, and Bragg used the sword through service in command of Confederate forces at Pensacola and Mobile. In 1862 he was given command of the Department of Alabama and West Florida, serving as a major general. At Shiloh, he succeeded Gen. Albert Sidney Johnston in command. Next, Bragg was promoted to full general, in command of the Army of Tennessee — he was one of eight general officers of the Confederacy who held the rank of full general, and before Lee was named General of the Armies. Bragg was in charge of all Confederate forces under arms.

After the war he took up a career as a civil engineer, and as chief engineer of Alabama he designed a system of jetties for the Mobile harbor. While he was engaged in this work he lived in a small house next door to that of his brother on Spring Hill Avenue. (The John Bragg House is today known as the Bragg-Mitchell Home, 1906 Spring Hill Ave., and is one of Mobile's outstanding examples of the white-columned antebellum architectural genre, and is itself open for public touring.)

Just below the sword in the display case is another weapon, which shows that the general understood the strengths of surprise as well as swash-buckling. It's a small dagger, a silver-mounted Italian stiletto, and was also presented by Clarke. A small clasp on its sheath permitted it to be secreted inside the general's vest, between his shoulder blades. Then, if trouble came suddenly, he could casually reach back, apparently to smooth his hair or scratch his neck, only to whip out the dagger and hurl it.

The body of Gen. Braxton Bragg was buried in Confederate Rest, in Magnolia Cemetery.

Hours for the Museum of the City of Mobile are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Tuesday through Saturday, and 1 to 5 p.m. Sundays. It's free and open to the public, with free parking adjacent and access for the handicapped. You'll find it at 355 Government St.

Obituary.

Last Saturday morning Feb 26, at 7 o'clock, Brother J. E. Joiner fell on sleep like the sheaf of wheat full grown and well matured, he was harvested.

At the ripe old age of 81, with more than 60 years of Christain experience he passed away, leaving a wife and five children to mourn his death.

Brother Joiner served his country faithfully during the Civil war until he was captured at the seige of Vicksburg.

But as a soldier of the cross he was standard bearer and for more than one-half century he bore the colors aloft until they were laid at the feet of Jesus.

For nearly one half century he was a deacon in the Baptist church at Starkville, Miss. and for two years a deacon of the church here. As a man he was honest, as a husband kind, as a father gentle, as a Christain loyal, as a citizen honorable. But he has gone to await the coming of all those who love and honor God.

May his mantle fall upon his sons; and the remembrance of his life be an incentive to duty and faithfulness to all of us who knew him, until we shall clasp hands in that world where parting is unknown.

His Pastor,

L. G. GATES.

Monday at 2:30 o'clock a. m. Robert W. Herring suddenly expired in his home at Indianola. His death came as a great shock to his family and friends throughout the county. He was 48 years of age.

SIMPLE SERVICE MARKS FUNERAL OF H. C. HERRING

Great Concourse of Saddened
Friends Join in Last Rites
For Prominent Banker

THE REGISTER BUREAU
Moss Point, Miss., Oct. 18]

Marked with every simplicity but with a touch of profound sadness, the funeral of Hartwell C. Herring, prominent banker, newspaper and business man, who passed away at his home in this city on Thursday evening, was held this morning from the Presbyterian church of which he had been a member for many years. The services were conducted by the pastor, the Rev. Mr. A. C. Ingram, assisted by Revs. W. I. McInnis and James W. Sells, pastors of the Presbyterian and Methodist churches, respectively, of Pascagoula.

The funeral was one of the most largely attended ever held in this city, many being unable to gain admittance to the church and were forced to remain standing outside during the service.

The pallbearers, both active and honorary were selected from directors, officers and employees of the Pascagoula National Bank, of which he was founder and councillor up to the time of his death. The active pallbearers were: B. D. Spann; T. L. De Lashmet; E. H. Mayo; of this city and J. O. Cole, Joe Brumfield and A. Francis Johnson of Pascagoula. The honorary pallbearers, being K. W. Burham, and A. M. Cowan, Moss Point, and A. F. Dantzler, Biloxi, Dr. W. R. Kell, Pascagoula.

Following the services at the church the cortege move to the Machpelian cemetery where the interment was made. No more fitting testimonial to the love and respect in which the deceased was held could have been evidenced than exemplified by the profusion of lowers that had been sent, not alone from over Mississippi, but many coming from the neighboring states of Alabama, Louisiana, Florida and other states. The floral tributes were probably the most profuse that have ever covered the final resting place of a citizen of this city.

During the hour of the funeral all places of business here were closed as a mark of respect to the deceased, who all his life had striven for the upbuilding of his home city.

Those attending the funeral were made up of people in every walk of life, many prominent business men with whom Mr. Herring had been associated during his business career coming to pay their last sad respects to their esteemed friend.

Motion prevailed that we, the Scan-much the members of Co. D, First Mississippi Infantry, for their valuable assistance rendered at the last several fires.

The following communication from Moss Point Fire Company was read and the secretary ordered to answer same by thanking them for their valuable cooperation, and assure them that we are ready at all times to assist them in any way possible:

Moss Point, Miss., April 27, 1917.
Pascagoula Fire Co.,
Pascagoula, Miss.

Gentlemen:

We now have our fire engine connected with a truck and can make good time to a fire. We also have 2,000 feet of hose and other equipment, so we can handle a fire pretty well.
Therefore, if at any time we can be of any service to you, when you have a fire call on us and we will come as soon as we can make the trip, which will be less than thirty minutes. In the day time call Gulf Refining Co., and they will give the alarm; at night call T. J. Schleisser (he is chief) and he will give it at night. If we can have the proper cooperation between the fire companies of each place, there is no reason why we should have any fires that amount to much.

This request, that I write you and offer our services, was voted at our regular meeting.

Yours for service,
MOSS POINT FIRE CO.,
Per J. F. COLLEY, Sec-Treas.

Motion prevailed that we celebrate
July 4th by giving our annual picnic

There being no further business the Henry Herring.

Mr. Henry Herring, one of Pasa-goula's oldest citizens, died at his home in South Pascagoula street last Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, after an illness of some days, death being caused by acute Bright's disease.

Mr. Herring was born in Beaumont, Texas, but had lived in Pascagoula for the past 23 years, being always prominent in business circles. At one time he was president of the People's Bank, and at the time of his death was engaged in the hardware business. He had been married twice, his last wife, who was Miss Corlone Alley, surviving him. He had three children by his first wife, Messrs. Clyde and Lyman Herring and Miss Mollie Herring, all living in Texas. Besides his wife and children he is survived by a sister, Mrs. M. G. McLeod, of Arcadia, Fla., and three brothers, Lee Herring, of Astoria, Oregon; Calder Herring, of Leavenworth, Wash.; and H. C. Herring, of Moss Point.

Mr. Herring was a quiet, unassuming man, a devoted husband, a conscientious business man, and a model citizen.

The funeral was private, being conducted last Sunday morning from the late residence of deceased by Rev. Mr.
Forsythe, of the Methodist church.
Interment in Macpelah Cemetery.

Death of Mrs. C. H. Alley.

A noble mother of Israel passed away this morning, when Mrs. Isa-bella Bilbo Alley, wife of our venerable and much respected townsman, C. H. Alley, died at her home in Ker-street this morning at 6:45 o'clock, after an illness of several weeks.

The nearness of the time of her death to our hour of going to press prevents us giving any extended account of this dear old lady's life, we shall have to reserve that until next week. Her death had been expected for some days, and her sons and daughters have been called from their different homes to be with her during her last hours.

Mrs. Alley was 75 years of age at the time of her death, and had lived in Pascagoula many years, being one of the pioneer settlers of old Scranton.
Had she lived until the fifth of June, she and Mr. Alley would have been married 60 years, a truly remarkable married life. The hearts of everyone in this entire section will respond in sympathy to the grief of her husband, bereft in his latest years of the companionship of one who has been at his side so long and faithfully.

The funeral will take place from the family residence, Sunday morning at nine o'clock, proceeding to the Methreturned home this week.

There will be services in the byterian Church Sunday morning evening at the usual hours, to PANAMA CITY, Florida — William Craig Herring, 18, of Mobile, Alabama, a former resident of Pine Bluff, was killed in an automobile accident here on September 10, in which one other person was killed and two others seriously injured, according to a spokesman for the Panama City Police Department.

According to the police spokesman, the car in which Herring was riding, a 1968 Jaguar, went out of control, crossed the center line and struck a 1975 Chevrolet traveling in the opposite direction.

Charges are pending further questioning of the two drivers, the spokesman said.

Herring attended Dial Junior High School and Pine Bluff High School at Pine Bluff. He had graduated from Davidson High School at Mobile recently and was planning to attend Auburn University this fall.

Survivors include his parents, Robert H. Herring Jr. and Doris Herring of Mobile; two brothers, Robert Herring Jr. and Louis Herring of Mobile; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Olson of Moss Point, Mississippi; and his stepgrandmother, Mrs. Minnie Lou Herring of Georgia.

IN MEMORIAM

H.C.Herring, Jr. was the last member of the Bragg-Herring families to worship in the Moss Point Presbyterian Church. The association of these two families with this church spanned 113 years.

Dr. W.D.Bragg, H.C.'s grandfather, became affiliated with the M.P. Presbyterian Church in 1877; he was a deacon and then a ruling elder. In 1890 he and his family were dismissed from this church to Scranton to assist in the organization of what is now the First Presbyterian Church of Pascagoula.

H.C.'s father, H.C.Herring, Sr. came into the church upon a profession of faith in 1889. He was dismissed to unite with a church in Beaumont, Texas and in 1896 he and his wife, Lola Bragg Herring, reunited with the M.P. Church. He was a deacon from 1901 until his death in 1927.

To this Bragg-Herring union several children were born, among them H.C. Herring, Jr. Upon a profession of faith he became a member of the church in 1924, and with the exception of a few years at Springhill, La. and Georgetown, S.C., he remained an active member. When he reunited with the church in 1950 from Georgetown, his wife, Bernice, united with the church.

Mr. Herring was ordained a deacon on April 8, 1951 and remained on the active diaconate until January 5, 1987 at which time he was granted emeritus status, a status he enjoyed until his recent death.

In memory of Mr. Herring gifts to the church have been received from:
